Fairleigh-Larsen

The approaching marriage of Colleen Maria Fairleigh and Ernest C. "Chip" Larsen, both of Pascagoula, has been announced.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Kathleen Boyle Fairleigh and Thomas B. Fairleigh, both of Pascagoula. Her grandparents are the late Thomas B. and Christine C. Fairleigh of Pascagoula; Kathleen Boyle of County Cavan, Ireland, and the late James Boyle.

A 1987 graduate of Pascagoula High School, she received a bachelor of science degree in nursing from the University of South Alabama in 1991. At college, she was a member of Phi Mu Sorority. She is employed as a registered nurse in oncology at Singing River Hospital, Pascagoula.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Shirley Carlson Fields and Ernest H. Larsen Jr., both of Pascagoula. His grandparents are Lillian K. Carlson of Pascagoula and the late Carl W. Carlson; and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. (Pauline) Larsen of Pascagoula.

Chip Larsen
Colleen Fairleigh

A 1987 graduate of Pascagoula High School, he is studying electronics at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College, Jackson County campus. He is employed by Singing River Hospital.

Wedding vows will be solemnized 7 p.m. Oct. 17, 1992, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Pascagoula.

—The Ocean Springs Firemen, in their red uniforms made a fine appearance in the parade yesterday.

—Go to M. V. B. Carey, on Delmas Avenue for bargains and fresh goods. He has just opened a fresh stock of seasonable goods, peculiarly suited to this market.

—Rev. R. B. Downer, of Ocean Springs, paid us a visit Tuesday. Mr. Downer is a christian gentleman and we are always glad to see him.

—The Board of Supervisors did not meet on Tuesday, because there was not a quorum present. The regular meeting will be the week after Circuit Court.

—Mr. Jessie H. Jackson, the clever postmaster at Orange Grove called on us this week. Everything is serene in and about that pleasant little burg.

—Col. Daniel Dennett, of the New Orleans Picayune was here Monday. Col. Dennett is a powerful writer on agriculture, stock raising, etc. Come again, Colonel.

—Death has invaded the happy home of Mr. L. J. Larkin of this place. Two of his bright little girls have been taken suddenly away. On Friday the 16th inst. Eurania Mary, aged 3 years, and on the following Saturday Evelina, aged four years, breathed her last. These [illegible]

—Lawyers and others attending Court at this place can find comfortable quarters and good fare at the River Side House at $1.50 a day.

—Mr. E. L. Silva, of New Orleans, for a long time confidential clerk of the late Emile DeSuet was in town this week. He was not in his usual good health, having lately been very sick.

—The River Side House at this place, so well kept by Mrs. M. A. Andrews, is prepared to accommodate winter boarders at very reasonable rates.

—Mr. R. A. Vanoleave, U. S. Timber Agent was here this week in the discharge of his duties. He still looks fat and cheerful. "Van" can stand a good deal of hard work, and we know he will do it right, too.

—Maj. Calvit Roberts, the able Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Harrison county gave us a pleasant visit Monday. He thinks the independent movement in Harrison has about "played out," and that the Democratic ticket will be elected.

—Mr. Ramsay Wharton, Commissioner for the State for the Exposition, called on us Monday. He has been nearly all over the State and says our people are alive to our State exhibits, and thinks Mississippi will have a fine display of her products.

—Mr. T. W. Brame and wife, who were stopping at the River Side House during the first of the week were called home to Scooba last Wednesday night on account of the sickness of their little boy Tommie. We hope nothing serious will result.

—The public speaking appointed for this place yesterday by Col. [illegible] Stockdale and Hon. T. [illegible] Miller, was deferred until [illegible] Mr. Miller, however, [illegible] proceedings to date, but we will publish them complete next week. The case of W. H. Gill vs Dr. H. Shannon occupied a day and a half and was decided in favor of the plaintiff. We learn there is a compromise of the case in prospect. Only a few others have been tried and several compromised.

—Besides the local bar we notice the following lawyers from a distance in attendance on Circuit Court: Messrs. Gaylord B. Clark, J. C. Rich, Mobile; Gen. Thos. S. Ford, Jackson; Col. R. Seal, Maj. Calvit Roberts, Mississippi City; Mr. Wesley G. Evans, Jr., Stonewall; Judge J. S. Hamm, Mr. Ed. Watkins, Meridian; Col. Ben Lane Posey, Bay St. Louis; Mr. T. W. Brame, Scooba; Hon. Elliot Henderson, of Pass Christian. They all seemed to have something to do, but we hardly think any of them made "piles" of money this week.

—On last Monday at 12:30 p.m., a prohibition meeting was held at the courthouse, according to appointment published. Mr. S. L. Boyers, of Ocean Springs, called the meeting to order and explained its object. Rev. O. D. Byers, of Moss Point, was chosen temporary chairman. Col. Daniel Dennett, of Brookhaven, then addressed the meeting on the subject of prohibition, after which the meeting went into permanent organization of "the Prohibition Society of Jackson County, Miss." The following were then elected: S. K. Williams, President; G. W. Davis, J. M. Pelham and G. G. Goff Vice Presidents; S. L. Boyers, Secretary, and Wm. Devroe, Treasurer. Executive Committee: S. K. Williams, S. L. Boyers, Wm. Devroe, Wm. R. Snyder and Rev. J. W. Terrill. The President was instructed to appoint a committee of one in each beat of the county to solicit membership. The Executive Committee were authorized to appoint the time for holding the next meeting.

—Death has invaded the happy home of Mr. L. J. Larson of this place. Two of his bright little girls have been taken suddenly away. On Friday the 16th inst. Eurania died, aged 5 years, and on the following Saturday, Ersilne, aged four years breathed her last. These [illegible] of the loved [illegible] were still in [illegible] our sympathy [illegible] bereaved parents.

—Lawyers and others attending Court at this place can find comfortable quarters and good fare at the River Side House at $1.50 a day.

—Mr. E. L. Silva, of New Orleans, for a long time confidential clerk of the late Emile DeSmet was in town this week. He was not in his usual good health, having lately been very sick.

—The River Side House at this place, so well kept by Mrs. M. A. Andrews, is prepared to accommodate winter boarders at very reasonable rates.

—Mr. R. A. Vancleave, U. S. Timber Agent was here this week in the discharge of his duties. He still looks fat and cheerful. "Van" can stand a good deal of hard work, and we know he will do it right, too.

—Maj. Calvit Roberts, the able Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Harrison county gave us a pleasant visit Monday. He thinks the independent movement in Harrison has about "played out," and that the Democratic ticket will be elected.

—Mr. Ramsay Wharton, Commissioner for the State for the Exposition, called on us Monday. He has been nearly all over the State and says our people are alive to our State exhibits, and thinks Mississippi will have a fine display of her products.

—Mr. E. W. Brame and wife, who were stopping at the River Side House during the first of the week were called home to Scooba last Wednesday night on account of the sickness of their little boy Tommie. We hope nothing serious will result.

—The public speaking appointed for this place yesterday by Col. [illegible] Stockdale and Hon. T. [illegible] Miller was deferred until [illegible] Mr. Miller, owing [illegible] [illegible] to [illegible]

proceedings to date, but we will publish them complete next week. The case of W. H. Gill vs Dr. H. Shannon occupied a day and a half and was decided in favor of the plaintiff. We learn there is a compromise of the case in prospect. Only a few others have been tried and several compromised.

—Besides the local bar we notice the following lawyers from a distance in attendance on Circuit Court: Messrs. Gaylord B. Clark, J. C. Rich, Mobile; Gen. Thos. S. Ford, Jackson; Col. R. Seal, Maj. Calvit Roberts, Mississippi City; Mr. Wesley G. Evans, Jr., Stonewall; Judge J. S. Hamm, Mr. Ed. Watkins, Meridian; Col. Ben Lane Posey, Bay St. Louis; Mr. T. W. Brame, Scooba; Hon. Elliot Henderson, of Pass Christian. They all seemed to have something to do, but we hardly think any of them made "pies" of money this week.

—On last Monday at 12:30 p.m., a prohibition meeting was held at the courthouse, according to appointment published. Mr. S. L. Boyers, of Ocean Springs, called the meeting to order and explained its object. Rev. O. D. Byers, of Moss Point, was chosen temporary chairman. Col. Daniel Dennett, of Brookhaven, then addressed the meeting on the subject of prohibition, after which the meeting went into permanent organization of "the Prohibition Society of Jackson County, Miss." The following were then elected: S. K. Williams, President; G. W. Davis, J. M. Pelham and G. G. Goff Vice Presidents; S. L. Boyers, Secretary, and Wm. Devroe, Treasurer. Executive Committee: S. K. Williams, S. L. Boyers, Wm. Devroe, Wm. R. Snyder and Rev. J. W. Terrill. The President was instructed to appoint a committee of one in each beat of the county to solicit membership. The Executive Committee was authorized to appoint the time for holding the next meeting.

REVIVAL SERVICES AT TABERNACLE

"Calling of Matthew" Subject of Interesting Address by Evangelist N. R. Stone.

Biloxi, April 7.

"The Calling of Matthew" was the subject of the sermon by Rev. N. R. Stone at the Big Airdome tabernacle revival services last night. The attendance was unusually good and those behind the revival services are of the opinion that the revival from now on will be very successful. The services will now be held at the tabernacle on Howard avenue, since the weather has sufficiently moderated to permit the change from the Methodist church.

No definite date has been set for the closing of the revival services and it is likely that the services will continue for several weeks yet.
